

The Caleb Powers Case.

Gov. Wilson is still occupied with the application of Caleb Powers for pardon. Arthur Goebel, brother of the assassinated Governor, protested against the pardon.

Mr. Goebel said that he desired to protest against the pardon of Jim Howard and Caleb Powers. He referred to the efforts of the defense to protect Henry Youtsey in the first trial of Powers, and yet, after he had confessed to flood him with charges in the following ones. He denied that it had ever been the purpose of the Commonwealth to defend Youtsey. It had always prosecuted him.

"It is a disgrace to the State that Youtsey has not been hanged, and also that the other two have not been hanged." Mr. Goebel spoke earnestly and freely without passion and with the ease of a practiced speaker. He took up the testimony of the new witnesses introduced at the last trial of Powers, dissecting their evidence carefully with the skill of the most finished criminal attorney. The large crowd in the hall listened breathlessly to every word of the brother of the murdered man.

Mr. Goebel said that in reference to the testimony of Col. Scott, which had not been given and had been referred to by the defense attorneys, he had gone to Col. Scott after his (Scott's) conference with Youtsey and asked him directly and man to man if Youtsey had admitted that he fired the shot that killed William Goebel. He said that Col. Scott had told him that Youtsey told him that he did not.

Mr. Goebel closed his appeal to the Governor with a peroration so eloquent and pathetic that it brought tears to the eyes of many. He said: "I protest against the pardon of Jim Howard and Caleb Powers. I refer you to the record of their cases and all kindred cases. I ask you to make an analytical and comparative study of the evidence of every witness who has appeared in every trial, and to the capability and the integrity of every witness to tell the truth of these cases. I ask you to make such a study as the best criterion is not what I say, but the evidence of the witnesses. The record shows that Powers is as good as guilty as can be. The world which throws him is guilty. For eight long years he has been in the common jail, and I have assisted the common jailer in this battle. I have done nothing that was not strictly in conformity with the law. I ask you to strong demonstration the law take its course."

There are those, many of them, who have said to me, that though Powers is guilty he has suffered enough and should be pardoned. That is mercy. If this is to be a question of mercy, I ask you to listen to the requiem of the dead which chant over the grave of William Goebel and to consider that a life and liberty were as dear to him as theirs is to them."

There was silence throughout the hall for a minute. Mr. Goebel turned and walked out.

HE GOT WHAT HE NEEDED.

"Nine years ago it looked as if my time had come," says Mr. C. Farthing, of Mill Creek, I. T. "I was so run down that life hung on a very slender thread. It was then my druggist recommended Electric Bitters. I bought a bottle and I got what I needed—strength. I had one foot in the grave, but Electric Bitters put it on his feet again, and I have been well ever since." Sold under guarantee at A. M. Hughes' drug store, 50 cents.

Death of Mrs. L. E. Bradley.

In the midst of life we are in death.

How true these words appeal to the death of Drusie Shortridge Bradley, who at the age of 24 years, eight months and four days fell asleep in Jesus, "from which none ever wake to weep."

Decceased was the daughter of J. W. and Elizabeth Shortridge and is the fourth daughter death has weaved from them—Addie, Sarah, Cassie and Drusie. The earthly home is losing but the heavenly home is gaining. Decceased was married in 1904 to Mr. L. E. Bradley and to them was born one son, John Gay Bradley, a sweet little boy. How sad for father and son to be left without wife and mother, but they have the consolation of knowing that they may meet her in the sweet bye and bye in heaven above, where all is love. There will be no more sorrow there.

She also leaves three sisters, Thelma, Lizzie and Charlotte, and one brother Rowland B. Shortridge, to mourn their loss.

She was a sweet spirited good woman, and everyone that knew her loved her. She was one of Lawrence county's best teachers for a while, bringing sunshine into the school room and those she associated with. But, alas, tuberculosis, the "great white plague," fastened its deadly fangs upon her. All was done for her by her good kind father, and mother and sisters and brother and affectionate husband and her many friends that kind hearts and gentle hands could do, but their power was exhausted and they could not stay the hand of death, as she grew weaker she grew stronger in the faith of her Christ, and the writer had the pleasant opportunity of associating with her often during her last days and heard her say, "I am ready to go it is well with myself."

Her funeral services were conducted at Fallsburg, Ky., her old home, by the Rev. H. B. Hulet, assisted by the writer. Many sorrowing friends and relatives witnessed the earthly appearance of Drusie Shortridge Bradley.

Her parents and husband desire through the writer to extend to the people of Catlettsburg and Fallsburg their heartfelt thanks and appreciation for their many kind words, deeds and sympathy extended during the sickness and death and burial of their dear daughter and wife. May God's richest blessings rest upon them all.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow, When God recalls His own, And bids them leave a world of woe For an immortal crown?

Then let our sorrow cease to flow, God has recalled his own. But let our hearts in every woe Still say, "Thy will be done."
